AMINATA SANOGO

Aminata Sanogo was born on December 1st, 1994 in Yopougon Ivory Coast. At the age of 12 she traveled to Germany alone to visit her siblings, but during the visit she decided to stay with them in Germany. This says a lot about the participant in the 9th season of GNTM - in which she took 4th place by the way. Aminata is a strong and confident young woman with a lot of energy and the gift of lighting up a room when she walks into it. Aminata lifts you into a good mood and is a real power girl, which she also demonstrated at Dance Dance Dance, another TV project in which she successfully participated in 2017. She is an often-booked photo model, has fantastic skills on the catwalk and is a welcome guest at red carpet events. When it comes to social media, Aminata is a pro in successful self-marketing, the staging of the personal brand, and is extremely dedicated. Among other things, she collects aid for people in need in her home country, but BLM and Female Empowerment are also topics that Aminata is absolutely passionate about.

This girl is on fire!
