LAUREN LEWIS

Lauren draws our attention in with her curly hair - don't care vibe. This dutch born girl with caribbean roots often gets called an ambassador for nicaragua. Even though she grew up in the EU she continues to rave about small and distant countries and their cultures, food, and people and shows her love to her Instagram following. Our attention always goes back to this beauty's ombré-like extraordinarily beautiful hair. Her Instagram and Youtube channels are a place for inspiration. You'll learn about her organic and plant based beauty routines, her cheerful personality, and love for all things sunshine related. Do not miss your chance to get to know this chick with a bounce in her step - and her locks. Her gleaming smile keeps us all coming back for more.
